

J.M. FREY

---

Press Kit, 2012

Author. Actor. Speaker.
Fanthropologist.
Professional Geek.

Thoughtful, insightful, and quirky, J.M. is the go-to gal in the Toronto scifi/fantasy scene for anything academic-nerd.

BIOGRAPHY

There's more to J.M. than just a pretty face. With a BA in Dramatic Literature from Brock University, and an MA in Communication's Culture from both Ryerson and York Universities, J.M. is a proven intellectual with a passion for pop culture.

Self-proclaimed Doctor Who fan and anime otaku, J.M. grew up in the comic book convention circuit, consuming copious amounts of scifi and Japanese TV, spending all her pocket money on comics and manga, and honing her skills as an award winning costumer. And all the while watching her fellow fans – which later became the basis for her academic studies in theatre, performance, sociology, anthropology, and gender.

Trained from an early age in musical theatre and voice acting, J.M. is fearless before a crowd. She has appeared as a model for art exhibitions, a model for a charity cosplay calendar, and in Liana K's Toronto-based Steampunk Fashion Show circuit. She was an invited panellist on the SPACE Channel's premier chat show InnerSPACE, has appeared in documentaries, and lent costumes to the Ontario Science Centre for their exhibition on Steampunk in spring 2011. She appears in the lauded 2012 webseries LESLIEVILLE, and can be found on the soundtrack for A Life In The Library, a musical tribute to Canadian national treasure Lillian H. Smith.

Already being compared to Robert J. Sawyer and Robert A. Heinlein, Frey's work is insightful, thought-provoking, socially relevant tales, as well as touching and engaging human stories.

TRIPTYCH

Named one of the Best Books of 2011 by Publishers Weekly and one of the Best Overlooked Books of 2011 by The Advocate.

"You know those movies where the aliens come to Earth, and they... I dunno, they try to steal our natural resources, or create a nuclear winter so they can turn the Earth into slag, or they melt the polar ice caps and New York is under fathoms of water, or they clone us for slaves, and use our cities for farmland, or...all that stuff? It was nothing like that."

A science fiction novel with literary aspirations, Triptych is about a world where the aliens have come to Earth not as enslavers or invaders, but as the down-on-their-luck homeless seeking aid and a place to fit in. Addressing such social issues a gender performance and family dynamics, culture clashes and culture shock, prejudice, violence, and the death of children, Triptych is the modern answer to classic sci-fi, an updated social commentary in vein of Heinlein, and a compelling, crafted fiction about what it means to fight for what you love against intolerance, prejudice, and mob mentality.

"I finished Triptych in one go last night, couldn't put it down even. It's a very impressive first novel and if Ms. Frey continues to do with science fiction what she's done in this book she might single-handedly be credited with reviving the entire genre. Bravo! Encore, encore!"

THE DARK SIDE OF THE GLASS

Coming Soon from Double Dragon Publishing

Review copies available upon request.

This is a story about Mary, number one fan of the hottest cult vampire detective TV show, City By Night... until it becomes all too real. An accident sends her hurtling into the world of the show, and Mary is thrilled until she realizes that living in TV-land isn't all it's cracked up to be. And of course, the lead character Leondre DuNoir falls for her! Sure, fine, he's hot... but he's also a bit flat. And his admiration comes with its own set of problems: Antonio, Leondre's psychotic stalker, has a habit of killing off the girls-of-the-week. Not only is Mary disillusioned with what she thought was a lush world until she had to try to maneuver in it, now she's about to be murdered by one of the stupidest clichés in the history of television in a world that, pardon the pun, totally sucks.

A loving satire of the Toronto Film Industry, vampire-cop TV, and what it really means to be a "Fan".

MEDIA APPEARANCES

In July of 2010, the SPACE channel invited Frey to be a panelist in the InnerSPACE Live Doctor Who Panel Discussion and season finale episode airing. Frey's comment that the Doctor makes the characters, and the audience, want to be "Bigger On The Inside" was chosen as one of SPACE's top moments of 2010.

Frey was the co-host of Hardcorenerdity.com's specialty run GeekU podcast, and was one of the triumvirate of Toronto Geek celebrities in the weekly G33KN3RDD0RK podcast, along with award winning and internationally renowned standup comic Gavin B. Stevens, and the co-founder of Dorkshelf.com Jeff Brown.

Frey appeared as the academic expert in 2009's Leaving Mundania, a refreshingly upbeat documentary about cosplay culture by Jiro C. Okada, and as Anne Shirley in the forthcoming The Maud Squad a documentary about Anne of Green Gables fandom by Lisa Lightbourn-Lay. Frey currently plays Casey, a lesbian planning her wedding, in the highly-anticipated webseries LESLieVILLE, which debuts in March 2012.

Frey was the primary investigator and writer after the pilot, as well as one of the two lead actors in The Swirlygate Project, a webseries that spoofed the common genre and gender stereotypes of science fiction television by poking fun at Stargate: Atlantis.

Frey starred in Ext. 5683 (L-o-v-e) a.k.a. Telemarketing: The Musical, alongside Toronto musical theatre performer Scott Pietrangelo. The film went on to win the award for best writing at the 2009 Toronto Youth Shorts Film Festival. Frey has also been a guest presenter at three local awards shows. In 2009 she presented the award for the Joe Shuster's Excellence in Canadian Comic Books for best writing, and the 2010 and 2011 Constellation Award for Canadian Science Fiction TV and Film, for best writing. Frey is also the vocals for A Life In The Library, a multimedia musical presentation about Lillian H. Smith, the first trained children's library in the British Empire.
